

AKA | Week 3

El Roi- The God who sees

- Psalm 33:18 13-22
 - 13 God sees all people
 - everything is in his sight
 - 16-17 God is the one who delivers
 - don't put your faith in the things of this world
 - the army, a team, government nothing but God
 - 18 Gods eyes is on you (the one who fears him)
 - many times, when we go through battles in this life we can ask if God is paying attention at all
 - parents in a divorce, death in a family, sickness, when life seems unfair
 - But he sees all
- Not only does he see all
- Yahweh Shammah- The Lord is there
 - Psalm 23:4 I will fear no evil for you are with me
 - God not only sees but he walks through the storm with us, and he is guarding our hearts if we follow him.
 - Psalm 46:1 Very present help in trouble
 - God is present
 - Many times, people think that God is absent not around in the tough times, but he is a present help.
 - He doesn't disappear in the storms
 - Footprints in the sand
 - Peter walking on water- walking in the midst of the storm everything was fine until he took his eyes off of Christ.
 - The storm did not change but the focus point of Peter. It changed from God to the storm.
 - So where is your focus point at? Is it on God or the storm.
 - We say God do you see this??? Where are you? When we should be saying God, I See you.
 - When we keep our eyes on him, he will lead us to victory because he has already won the battle.
- Yahweh Nissi- The Lord is my banner
 - Psalm 23:5 He prepares a table in the midst of my enemies.
 - It's a victory table. God knows the battle is already won but are we going to trust him in the midst of it all.
 - Exodus 17:8-16
 - Moses holding a banner up
 - What does it mean
 - It's our unifier

- Soccer banner
- It's our claim to victory our hope
 - Raising the flag at Iwo Jima
- God is our unifier
 - It's our common identity
- God is what gives us hope and gives us the victory
 - It comes from him and him alone