

Series Summary: We believe that God gave us the Bible to help us understand the question that every human has: Who am I? As God interacted with different people in the Bible, we see their failures and their triumphs. And instead of being defined by those, we see God call out the truth of who He has called them to be. From these stories, we too can learn who God has called us to be ...

Abraham:

- Chosen v. Wanderer
- Righteous v. Sinful
- Faithful v. Selfish

Key Scripture

Call of Abram: Genesis 11:31-12:9
Abram's Sin: Genesis 12:10-20, 12:20:1-13
Abram's Offspring: Genesis 16:1-7, 22:1-19
God's Covenant with Abraham: Genesis 15

Getting Started

- What did God ask Abram to do?
- What did God promise Abram?
- How was Abram sinful?

Digging Deeper

- As we look at the life of Abraham ... what identity did God give to him?
- Read Genesis 15. In verse 6, what made Abraham righteous?
- Our belief or faith in Jesus is what makes us righteous.
- Why do you think God asking Abram to move in Gen. 11:31-12:9 was such a big deal?
- What are examples of times when you have felt like you were wandering in life and didn't have direction?
- Being a wanderer or uncertain of your future is not who you are. Even though Abraham was wandering, God chose Him to make a great nation out of Him. In the same way, Jesus has chosen us. 1 Peter 2:9, Ephesians 2:8-9, Ephesians 1:4
- The truth is that we are selfish people because of our sinful nature, but again, our sin is not our identity. As we look at the identity that God gave to Abraham ... what do we learn about the identity God has given to us?
