

WEDNESDAY

Let's Talk About Sex (Girls Only) - Alli Nathan & Hannah Campbell

Student Center, Henry West

Calling all girls! Join us as we dive straight into the awkward, with the good ol' "Birds and the Bees" and anything you want to know about sex! God's word points us to true fulfillment in Him!

Loving God & Loving Others in 2023 - Nick Mazza

PPAC, Choir Room 160

The Bible has over 600 laws, but Jesus boils it down to only 2: Love God and Love people. Easier said than done. How do we love God and people the way God desires, not just how our society/culture demands? Let's dive into what God's Word says about loving Him and the people He created!

What Makes A Man? (Guys Only) - Cody Ray & Tony Villafane

PPAC, Band Room 150

Does turning 18 make you a man? Does your gender alone, make you a man? In his book Five Marks of a Man, Brian Tome breaks down the differences between what boys do and who men are. Join us as we discover the path to courageous manhood that honors God, respects women, elevates others, and sets a vision for a meaningful life.

Am I Alone? Exploring Causes of Loneliness & Solutions To It - Zoe Oseni

Student Center, Jones

Being a teenager can be really lonely. You are surrounded by people all the time but can feel like no one really knows you or sees you. In this Power Track, learn how to develop deeper friendships and how to find peace in a world of anxiety.

Finding Joy - Janine Lansing

PPAC, Black Box Theater, Room 170

Life is rarely what the fairy tales describe. The world says, "you do you" and "follow your heart" and yet this life still feels empty and without purpose. Jesus said that He came to give life abundant and joy overflowing. So what's the deal? This Power Track answers those questions and gives practical steps to trust & persevere through the hardest of life's circumstances.

Fighting Fear – Corbin Hogue Student Center, Leedy

Can I do it? What will others think about it? I'm not like everybody else? Sound familiar...these are the thoughts we all have when we are going to do anything of significance. Often times these thoughts can leave us paralyzed. But what if I told you, you can do all the things the Lord has called you to do, all while still being afraid?

Discovering God's Call – Rob Rojas Student Center, The Commons

Many people wonder what God wants for their lives. Many feel that God's plan demands a specific calling or profession and finding that can be difficult and confusing. Understanding yourself and God is necessary for you to join God in what He is already doing. Discovering one's calling is commonly linked to the Christian faith. Join me to explore more about uncovering God's calling.

Who Am I? Identity In Christ – Dillon Cram PPAC, Room 137

When you meet someone for the first time and you are introducing yourself, what are the first couple of things you'd say? Would you say things like I play sports, I'm in band, or talk about your sexual preference? While some of these things are okay to engage in, when does it shift from a hobby/something you like, to what you find your identity in? Come learn what it means to stop putting our identity in things of the world that will let us down and learn what it truly means to find who we are in Jesus!

Deconstructing God (Part 1) : Knowing I Can Know – Randy Smith Student Center, Globe Theater

Does belief make sense in a skeptical world? These days, the struggle isn't just doubt, its strong opposition to the idea that we can actually KNOW truth, KNOW morality and ultimately KNOW God.

Exploring Biblical Creation – Nate Bosch & Don DeYoung PPAC, Recital Hall Room 141

The Bible gives clear direction for understanding nature. We will explore the Week of Creation, dinosaurs and ice ages, gravity, intelligent design, space, environmental care and more. Four basic components of Biblical creation will be illustrated. This Power Track is designed to encourage confidence in God's control over the world, and to explore our part in creation care and stewardship.

WEDNESDAY

Real Or Not Real? How To Identify God's Truth Over Lies – Mark Artrip Student Center, Bedford

Every day we swim in a world of news, opinions, relationships and cultural norms. How do we filter all the information the world is throwing at us? How can we love people and have impact, and identify lies and walk in the truth? Join us as we learn how to identify God's truth and build our lives on what it says.

How To Reach Your School For Christ – Luke Peters PPAC, Room 135

In this Power Track you'll learn how to clearly share the gospel, ways to start the conversation and 5 ideas to proclaim Christ. We'll equip you with all the ins and outs of how to start & lead a Christian club at your school, and how to plan an outreach event with free food, exciting speakers, and the good news where dozens or hundreds of your peers can come hear about Jesus. During this Power Track you'll experience powerful testimonies of students just like you that have shared their faith and are leading for Christ at their school!

Your God Story: A Path to Pastoring/Full-time Ministry Brad Deetscreek, Shannon Simmons & Tim Lansing PPAC, Room 133

You surrendered your life to God, and you're wondering what's next? Maybe you sense the Lord pressing you to be fully committed to Him in areas of your life such as your career choice. As God unfolds the next chapter of your life, could he be writing a story in you that involves full-time ministry? Come hear from Tim Lansing, Brad Deetscreek, and Shannon Simmons - three full-time ministry professionals, all with unique stories of how God brought them to full-time ministry and ways to discover your path too.

Reaching A World That Doesn't Think They Need Jesus – Mark Clark PPAC, Auditorium Room 140

In this Power Track, you'll explore the world of cultural apologetics with Mark Clark. Mark will address the questions our post-Christian culture is wrestling with and give insight on how to engage them with Biblical and culturally relevant answers.

THURSDAY

Asking For A Friend: Questions About Gender, Sexuality, and Identity – Tim Sprinkle & Zac Hess PPAC, Auditorium Room 140

You have friends who are struggling with their bodies, feelings, and self-perception. Some are same-sex attracted. Others want to change their name, pronoun, or gender label. Perhaps, you have more questions than answers. But you also expect God has spoken about gender, sexuality and identity somewhere in the Bible. You're right! And in this Power Track, you can ask for your friend.

Sexual Identity & Freedom – Jess Livigni Student Center, The Commons

Who or what is defining your sexual identity... and your identity as a whole? We are told that happiness is found in discovering and defining our own sexuality and our own identity. Is this pursuit leading us to happiness and freedom or is it actually enslaving us?

What Makes A Man? (Guys Only) – Cody Ray & Tony Villafane PPAC, Band Room 150

Does turning 18 make you a man? Does your gender alone make you a man? In his book, Five Marks of A Man, Brian Tome breaks down the differences between what boys do and who men are. Join us as we discover the path to courageous manhood that honors God, respects women, and sets a vision for a meaningful life.

What Is A Real Relationship? (Girls Only) – Alli Nathan & Hannah Campbell Student Center, Henry West

Calling all girls! We're talking about all sorts of relationships in this session - best friends, guy friends, dating, engagements, and even your parents. God's word points us to true fulfillment in a relationship with Him!

Am I Alone? Exploring Causes of Loneliness and Solutions To It – Zoe Oseni Student Center, Jones

Being a teenager can be really lonely. You are surrounded by people all the time but can feel like no one really knows you or sees you. In this Power Track, learn how to develop deeper friendships and how to find peace in a world of anxiety.

THURSDAY

Choosing Trust – Janine Lansing

PPAC, Black Box Theater Room 170

Fear grips us & worry consumes us, yet Jesus says, “Do not worry. Do not be afraid.” Is this truly possible? Can we live a worry free life full of confidence, courage, and peace? This Power Track gives practical steps to trust and persevere through the hardest of life’s circumstances .

Loving God and Loving Others in 2023 – Nick Mazza

PPAC, Choir Room 160

The Bible has over 600 laws, but Jesus boils it down to only two: love God and love people. Easier said than done. How do we love God and people the way God desires, not just how our society/culture demands? Let’s dive into what God says about loving Him and the people He created!

Learning To Lead – Timothy Kurtaneck

Student Center, Leedy

Do you want to have influence? How about learn to lead others in your school, church, and more? This Power Track will offer valuable lessons learned from years of leadership experience that will help you gain confidence and take next steps in leading your environments!

Who Am I? Identity In Christ – Dillon Cram

PPAC, Room 137

When you meet someone for the first time and you are introducing yourself, what are the first couple of things you’d say? Would you say things like I play sports, I’m in band, or talk about your sexual preference? While some of these things are okay to engage in, when does it shift from a hobby/something you like, to what you find your identity in? Come learn what it means to stop putting our identity in things of the world that will let us down and learn what it truly means to find who we are in Jesus!

Deconstructing God (Part 2): Deciding How to Decide – Randy Smith

Student Center, Globe Theater

Can I lay a solid foundation beneath my choices based on more than just feelings? How much of my choice is rooted simply in my desires? Did God leave us any way to know when we are truly making the right choices?

THURSDAY

How Do We Minister To The Overlooked & Houseless - Ed Lewis PPAC, Room 135

Hear about the issues of the poor and overlooked and see what the Bible teaches about our responsibilities to them. We will discuss practical ways to help those who need the Lord (and may not even know there are answers!) Hear the reports and stories of how God has changed lives on the mainland AND in Hawaii where Ed presently serves!

Your God Story: A Path to Pastoring/Full-time Ministry Brad Deetscreek, Shannon Simmons & Tim Lansing PPAC, Room 133

Your surrendered your life to God, and you're wondering what's next? Maybe you sense the Lord pressing you to be fully committed to Him in areas of your life such as your career choice. As God unfolds the next chapter of your life, could he be writing a story in you that involves full-time ministry? Come hear from Tim Lansing, Brad Deetscreek, and Shannon Simmons - three full-time ministry professionals, all with unique stories of how God brought them to full-time ministry and ways to discover your path too.

Current Events In The Bible & Science - Nate Bosch & Don DeYoung PPAC, Recital Hall Room 141

Current Bible-science research topics include climate change, carbon-14 dating, microplastics, Genesis flood evidence, electric vehicles, UFO's, and the 2024 solar eclipse. These and other recent topics will be explained with Biblical creation insights. While answering common questions, the topics provide a refreshing way to share our faith with others.

Real Or Not Real: How to Identify God's Truth Over Lies - Mark Artrip Student Center, Bedford

Everyday we swim in a world of news, opinions, relationships, and cultural norms. How do we filter all the information the world is throwing at us? How can we love people and have impact, and identify lies and walk in the truth? Join us as we learn how to identify God's truth and build our lives on what it says.

FRIDAY

Asking For A Friend: What Does God Have To Do With Sex? – Juli Slattery PPAC, Auditorium Room 140

How does knowing Jesus Christ impact your sexuality? You may feel like God and sex live in separate categories of your life. While God is Holy, your sexuality can feel shameful. In this Power Track, Dr. Juli Slattery addresses some of the most confusing and difficult questions about honoring God with your sexuality.

Sexual Identity and Freedom – Jess Livigni Student Center, The Commons

Who or what is defining your sexual identity... and your identity as a whole? We are told happiness is found in discovering and defining our own sexuality and our own identity. Is this pursuit leading us to happiness and freedom or is actually enslaving us?

Broken and Blended Families – Bruce Barlow PPAC, Choir Room 160

They fought, they divorced, now what? This Power Track will equip you to think Biblically about the pain and problems of divorce and how to navigate the dynamics of a blended family. We'll look at how the Bible calls us to view marriage, divorce, and honoring our parents, especially when we're disappointed by them or their choices. What about stepfamilies? How should we navigate those relationships? Learn how God's mercy and grace can have an impact on your blended/broken family.

How To Reach Your School For Christ – Luke Peters PPAC, Room 135

In this Power Track you'll learn how to clearly share the gospel, ways to start the conversation and 5 ideas to proclaim Christ. We'll equip you with all the ins and outs of how to start & lead a Christian club at your school, and how to plan an outreach event with free food, exciting speakers, and the good news where dozens or hundreds of your peers can come hear about Jesus. During this Power Track you'll experience powerful testimonies of students just like you that have shared their faith and are leading for Christ at their school!

FRIDAY

Finding Joy – Janine Lansing PPAC, Black Box Theater #170

Life is rarely what the fairy tales describe. The world says “you do you” and “follow your heart” and yet life still feels empty and without purpose. Jesus said that He came to give life abundant and joy overflowing. So what’s the deal? This Power Track answers the questions and gives practical steps to trust & persevere through the hardest of life’s circumstances.

Mr. Beast VS. Jesus – Blake Cruise Student Center, Jones

Join us as we dive into social media’s incredible power and how we can use it for God’s kingdom (without being cringey). In this power track we’re going to discuss content creation, trends, and being an influencer.

Fighting Fear – Corbin Hogue Student Center, Leedy

“Can I do it? What will others think about it? I’m not like everyone else...” Sound familiar...? These are the thoughts we all have when we are going to do anything of significance. Often times, these thoughts can leave us paralyzed. But what if I told you that you can do all of the things the Lord has called you to do, all while still being afraid?

Deconstructing God (Part 1): Knowing I Can Know – Randy Smith Student Center, Globe Theater

Does belief make sense in a skeptical world? These days, the struggle isn’t just doubt, it’s strong opposition to the idea that we can actually KNOW truth, KNOW morality, and ultimately KNOW God.

Identifying / Overcoming Anxiety & Depression – Bethany Miller & Drew Waggoner PPAC, Band Room 150

If you have felt nervously stalked by an invisible threat that seems like no one else around you is afraid of, you might struggle with anxiety. Others suffer in silence with no real explanation about why happiness just isn’t meant for them - depression’s darkness. For others still, it’s both. If you, or someone you know can relate, then join us to hear some practical truths, tools to help you overcome, and a story you might be experiencing yourself.

FRIDAY

Knowing God VS. Knowing ABOUT God – Rothen Bedford

PPAC, Room 137

What does it mean to KNOW God? Not just know ABOUT Him. Not to just know what He has said, and what He has done; but to know Him in a deep, personal, life-changing kind of way. Come and engage in a conversation on who God is and how you can know Him the way you were designed to!

Exploring Biblical Creation – Nate Bosch & Nate DeYoung

PPAC, Recital Hall Room 141

The Bible gives clear direction for understanding nature. We will explore the Week of Creation, dinosaurs and ice ages, gravity, intelligent design, space, environmental care and more. Four basic components of Biblical creation will be illustrated. This Power Track is designed to encourage confidence in God's control over the world, and to explore our part in creation care and stewardship.

When “You Do You” Falls Apart – Ted & Kaylin Offutt

Student Center, Bedford

Our culture tells us “you do you! Be true to yourself and don't try and change anyone else.” But is that right or true? If we are known by God, wouldn't we want to make Him known? If God is changing us to be the best version of ourselves, wouldn't we want to invite and urge others to let God do the same with them?

How Do We Minister To The Overlooked & Houseless - Ed Lewis

Student Center, Henry West

Hear about the issues of the poor and overlooked and see ee what the Bible teaches about our responsibilities to them. Discuss practical ways to help those who need the Lord (and may not even know there are answers!) Hear the reports and stories of how God has chanded lives on the mainland AND in Hawaii where Ed presently serves!

SATURDAY

Asking For A Friend: Questions About Gender, Sexuality, and Identity – Tim Sprinkle & Zac Hess PPAC, Auditorium 140

You have friends who are struggling with their bodies, feelings, and self-perception. Some are same-sex attracted. Others want to change their name, pronoun, or gender label. Perhaps, you have more questions than answers. But you also expect God has spoken about gender, sexuality and identity somewhere in the Bible. You're right! And in this Power Track, you can ask for your friend.

Broken and Blended Families – Bruce Barlow PPAC, Choir Room 160

They fought, they divorced, now what? This Power Track will equip you to think Biblically about the pain and problems of divorce and how to navigate the dynamics of a blended family. We'll look at how the Bible calls us to view marriage, divorce, and honoring our parents, especially when we're disappointed by them or their choices. What about stepfamilies? How should we navigate those relationships? Learn how God's mercy and grace can have an impact on your blended/broken family.

Identifying / Overcoming Anxiety & Depression – Bethany Miller & Drew Waggoner PPAC, Band Room 150

If you have felt nervously stalked by an invisible threat that seems like no one else around you is afraid of, you might struggle with anxiety. Others suffer in silence with no real explanation about why happiness just isn't meant for them - depression's darkness. For others still, it's both. If you, or someone you know can relate, then join us to hear some practical truths, tools and a story you might be experiencing yourself.

Choosing Trust – Janine Lansing PPAC, Black Box Theater, Room 170

Fear grips us & worry consumes us, yet Jesus says, "Do not worry. Do not be afraid." Is this truly possible? Can we live a worry free life full of confidence, courage, and peace? This Power Track gives practical steps to trust and persevere through the hardest of life's circumstances .

SATURDAY

Discovering God's Call – Rob Rojas Student Center, The Commons

Many people wonder what God wants for their lives. Many feel that God's plan demands a specific calling or profession and finding that can be difficult and confusing. Understanding yourself and God is necessary for you to join God in what He is already doing. Discovering one's calling is commonly linked to the Christian faith. Join me to explore more about uncovering God's calling.

Learning To Lead – Timothy Kurtaneck Student Center, Leedy

Do you want to have influence? How about learn to lead others in your school, church, and more? This Power Track will offer valuable lessons learned from years of leadership experience that will help you gain confidence and take next steps in leading your environments!

Finding Your Place In The Marketplace – Audrey Wallace & Vinnie Fisher PPAC, Room 135

What do you want to be when you grow up? Maybe you see yourself in business, construction, health, education...No matter what title is on your business card, we are all called to go into the world and make disciples! If you feel called into the marketplace, join us to talk about how God has given you everything you need to do excellent work and, most importantly, to share the Gospel with your co-workers.

Deconstructing God (Part 2): Deciding How To Decide – Randy Smith Student Center, Globe Theater

Can I lay a solid foundation beneath my choices based on more than just feelings? How much of my choice is rooted simply in my desires? Did God leave us any way to know when we are truly making the right choices?

Knowing God VS. Knowing ABOUT God – Rothen Bedford PPAC, Room 137

What does it mean to KNOW God? Not just know ABOUT Him. Not to just know what He has said, and what He has done; but to know Him in a deep, personal, life-changing kind of way. Come and engage in a conversation on who God is and how you can know Him the way you were designed to!

SATURDAY

Current Events In The Bible & Science – Nate Bosch & Don DeYoung

PPAC, Recital Hall Room 141

Current Bible-science research topics include climate change, carbon-14 dating, microplastics, Genesis flood evidence, electric vehicles, UFO's and the 2024 solar eclipse. These and other recent topics will be explained with Biblical creation insights. While answering common questions, the topics provide a refreshing way to share our faith with others

When “You Do You” Falls Apart – Ted & Kaylin Offutt

Student Center, Bedford

Our culture tells us “you do you! Be true to yourself and don't try and change anyone else.” But is that right or true? If we are known by God, wouldn't we want to make Him known? If God is changing us to be the best version of ourselves, wouldn't we want to invite and urge others to let God do the same with them?

Living & Active: Why We Need The Word of God – Trey Storr

PPAC, Room 133

Is the Bible really important? Nearly every Christian would affirm that it is, but we often struggle to read our Bibles and apply it to daily life. This Power Track will feature the testimony of Trey Storr and how scripture changed his path from pursuing a career in baseball to going into full-time ministry.

Mr. Beast VS. Jesus – Blake Cruise

Student Center, Jones

Join us as we dive into social media's incredible power and how we can use it for God's kingdom (without being cringey). In this power track we're going to discuss content creation, trends, and being an influencer.